

Exodus

By James West

Key message of the book: God brings His people out of bondage, and into glorious covenant relationship with Himself.

Background information:

'Exodus' is Greek for 'a departing or going out from'. The book was written by Moses, probably somewhere between 1446 to 1406 B.C. The Exodus occurs around 1446, approximately 720 years after Abraham was born. The book covers the first year of Israel's desert journeys.

Outline of the book:

God brings the Hebrews out of bondage, and into a covenant relationship with Himself.

1. The bondage in Egypt under Pharaoh (The power of Sin, Satan, Antichrist)
 - a. Satan's efforts to destroy God's chosen people
 - b. Moses, a picture of Christ, born to deliver his people
2. The judgments upon Egypt (The power of God)
 - a. 9 plagues
 - b. 10th plague: Angel of death, during Passover. Demonstrating that by sacrifice, God's people are delivered from bondage, and brought into covenant with Himself. (ch. 12)
 - c. The chariots of Pharaoh overthrown in the Red Sea.
3. Israel praises God for deliverance (ch. 15)
4. God provides for Israel
 - a. Fiery and Cloudy pillar
 - b. Jesus is the bread of life (16)
 - c. Jesus is the rock smitten, that we might have the water of life (17)
5. God states His purpose for the nation. (19:3-6; also, 1 Peter 2:9)
6. God gives the law, revealing Himself as consuming fire.
 - a. They are afraid, and request that Moses speak to them instead.
 - i. This is what Christ came to do. (Heb 12:24)
 - b. It is the schoolmaster which points us to Christ. (Gal 3:24)
7. The people sin, and are purged in holiness (32).
8. The tabernacle of the congregation is repositioned outside the camp. The people reverence God now, and are willing to contribute to the tabernacle.
9. The tabernacle and accessories are manufactured and set up. The priests are consecrated.
The service is begun. (See Revelation 21:22)
 - a. It represents Christ, the meeting place between God and man.

Application:

We should rejoice with trembling, knowing that it is only because of the blood of the Lamb of God that we have been brought into covenant relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. If any have not entered into the New Covenant through faith in Jesus Christ, then let them do so quickly! As for those of us that believe, what manner of persons ought we to be in holiness, and in offering praise to God, seeing that He is a consuming fire, and yet has called us to be a peculiar people to Himself, even in this church age! What a privilege that we now know that Christ is the God-man, the true meeting place between God and man, and that He Himself is the One who was mysteriously pictured in all those types. Let us serve Him diligently, and not with slothfulness.

Chapters of Exodus described:

1. A new Pharaoh arises, and seeks to kill off the Hebrew baby boys.
2. Moses is born and rescued. In seeking to be a Saviour, he attracts the wrath of the Pharaoh, and flees to Midian, and marries. God hears the cries of Israel.
3. God speaks to Moses through a burning bush, while Moses shepherd's Jethro's flock. God instructs him to bring His people out of Egypt into the promised land.
4. Moses tries to argue, even though God gives him signs. God appoints Aaron to be Moses' mouth. Moses returns to Egypt.
5. The two brothers command Pharaoh to let the people go. Pharaoh responds by increasing the workload of the people. The people resent the brothers for this. Moses cries out to God.
6. Moses prophesies deliverance to the people, but they don't hearken, for anguish of spirit. God gives the brothers a charge.
7. Aaron's rod becomes a serpent, and swallows the rods of the magicians. The ten plagues begin: #1: The Nile is turned to blood.
